1. Certain "professional students" appear to form the hard core of university cell organizations in Nanking which meet every evening with representatives of the Military Control Commission educational committee and similar groups from other major colleges to report campus activities and to receive instructions. A typical student thus employed is HSU Tze-hu, who entered Nanking University as a freshman last fall, but who apparently had had freshman years at two other schools. HSU, who is about 25 years of age and who actually has attended only about 30 percent of his classes, is absolute and rigid in his attitude. Other such "students" differ only in degree.
2. While these "students" have thus far furnished no evidence that has resulted in arrests or direct harm to members of the student body, they remain a continual nuisance for every problem that arises.
3. LIU Shao-chi is said to be very ill with advanced tuberculosis. The report of his illness is alleged to have originated among his relatives.
4. About 29 July the Soviet Embassy called in a number of contractors and asked for estimates on the construction of a large number of big crates for moving or storing.
